

WIFE IN NAME ONLY.

Death Claimed the Bridegroom, the Bride the Estate. IT IS DENIED THEY WERE MARRIED.

ANOTHER MAN SAID TO HAVE PERSONATED A. G. ZIGLER AT HIS WEDDING.

THE DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE FOLLOWS.

BUTLER, July 13.—A novel legal contest is going on here before Squire James N. Moore, an auditor appointed by the court, which involves the question of the marriage of Alfred G. Zigler, deceased, late junior editor of the Butler Herald, and Miss Alice O. Burke, daughter of a prominent Episcopal minister who died in this place several years ago.

The Burkes had resided in Butler at one time, but subsequently removed to East Liverpool, O. On November 23, 1888, it is said, the two were married at Wheeling by Rev. Mr. Cushing, a Methodist clergyman. The marriage license was taken out in due form, the nuptial knot tied in the regular way, and the certificate of their marriage given to the bride.

ARRESTED FOR LIBEL.

ONE PROHIBITIONIST EDITOR INVOKES THE LAW AGAINST ANOTHER.

SPRINGFIELD, July 13.—Tullie Morgan, editor of the People, the State organ of the Prohibitionists, and President of the Prohibition League of Pennsylvania, was arrested here today on a charge of libel preferred by Mr. Charles E. Steel, of Minersville, Grand Secretary of the Good Templars Lodge of Pennsylvania and editor of the Minersville Free Press and Key-stone Good Templar.

POWDERLY DECLINES.

HE CANNOT DEVOTE TIME TO THE WORLD'S FAIR AND HE WANTS TO BE FREE.

Scranton, July 13.—Hon. T. Powderly, General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor, has declined the appointment of World's Fair Commissioner tendered him by Governor Pattison. Mr. Powderly was out West when the appointment was made and it was not until a few days ago that he received official notification of his appointment.

SHOT IN THE DARK.

A QUIET CITIZEN OF STEELTON MYSTERIOUSLY ASSAILED.

Scranton, July 13.—John Rozman, of this place, while out in the yard of his home about 10 o'clock last night, was shot in the arm by some unknown person. Looking in the direction from which the noise came, he saw the head and arm of a man appear above the fence and saw the man shoot at him. He was frightened and ran into the house where he was covered by the shot.

OLD SOLDIERS' REUNION.

A THOUSAND WILL ASSEMBLE AT MCKEESPORT ON SATURDAY.

McKeesport, July 13.—Over 1,000 old soldiers will assemble here Saturday next to conduct a general reunion. It will be held in the streets, and the grounds are being nicely prepared for it.

ROBBERS AGAIN AT WORK.

THREE RESIDENCES AT MCKEESPORT ENTERED BY THE SAME OLD GANG.

McKeesport, July 13.—This thief-ridden locality is again the scene of the robbing of three places since Saturday, and it seems that the numerous arrests have not yet rooted out the several gangs that are playing their trade here.

TROUBLES OF A CIRCUIS.

IT WILL BE SOLD TO SATISFY THE SEVERAL CLAIMS FOR SALARY.

HERRINGTON, July 13.—Frank Robbins, the manager of Robbins' Circus and Menagerie, who had trouble with the sheriff in Greensburg and Johnstown, is again in a financial hole in this city.

QUESTIONABLE METHODS.

WHAT A TRADE PAPER THINKS OF THE CRACKER.

The methods adopted by a foreign baking company to secure the trade of local cracker and cracker makers, are, to say the least, quite a trifle shady.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

SCOTTSDALE, July 13.—The Patrons of Husbandry, embracing the farmers of Westmoreland and Fayette counties, will hold a grand mass meeting and celebration here on August 18.

COMPLETELY WORN OUT.

A BRAKEMAN FALLS OFF A TRAIN INTO A DITCH AND IS KILLED.

ZANESVILLE, O., July 13.—Rufus Taylor, a brakeman on the Cleveland, Canton and Southern Railway, fell off a freight train at a crossing on that road and the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley Road, a distance of 40 feet into the ditch.

LIED TO ESCAPE PUNISHMENT.

A BOY SHOTS HIMSELF AND DESCRIBES AN IMAGINARY ASSAULT.

CORCOWSON, July 13.—Henry Beynon, aged 11, was found near his home with a painful bullet wound in his leg to-day. He had claimed that while driving the cow a stranger had shot at him.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE.

Pleased and delighted left our store yesterday after seeing the men's suits we are selling at 80. Many bought and others called merely to see what we were "blowing so much about," as they expressed it.

THE DUQUENNE TRACTION ROAD.

RUNS CARS TO THE HOMEWOOD RACE TRACK EVERY FIVE MINUTES.

A PLAN THAT WILL TAKE.

The Blaine Company have very wisely cut away from the fashion of high prices in favor of outside plans of lots, and are cordially made friends by their beautiful lots at Blaine—$150 to $300 each—which guarantee a liberal profit to every purchaser at the opening sale on the 14th.
